FEE GUIDE 2025/2026 FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS FULL-TIME STUDY

FEE PAYMENTS

- All international students are required to settle all initial and second payment fees prior to their arrival in Malaysia. A late payment charge will be applied to any overdue fees.
- All fees must be remitted in Malaysia Ringgit (MYR), the official currency of the country. Payments can be conveniently made through various channels, including bank drafts and online telegraphic transfers. When initiating payments from foreign accounts, international students should take into account currency conversion rates and associated banking fees, as these expenses must be borne by the students.
- Retaining receipts or transaction confirmations is advisable as evidence of payment for future reference. This documentation serves as a crucial record of financial transactions and can be beneficial for any inquiries that may arise.
- Payment of fees by bank draft should be made payable to "NXTLEARN EDUCATION GROUP SDN BHD," or through telegraphic transfer using the following details:

BANK ACCOUNT DETAILS
BENEFICIARY	NXTLEARN EDUCATION GROUP SDN BHD
ACCOUNT NO	4500339071
BANK NAME	Hong Leong Bank Berhad
